Overview

From a young age, I commenced my volunteering journey at the age of nine and engaged in youth camps starting at sixteen for a duration of ten years. As a graduate in mechanical engineering, my affiliation with this field has been crucial, often surpassing my professional endeavors. Additionally, I have been involved in acting since 1988 and have taken on roles in stage drama directing and playwriting since 2010. These pursuits have consistently accompanied my professional life for over thirty years, alongside my family and my continuous volunteer efforts. Moreover, my professional credentials in human resources have proven to be invaluable, especially during my tenure as an administrative member of the BABCO workers union for nearly eight years. Currently, I am in my ninth year with the Bahrain Transparency Society, serving on its board for the seventh year.
